
SANDHILLS FRIENDS GROUP - MULTILINGUAL STORY TIME

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE — UN COMO TÚ

SIGN	ENGLISH	SPANISH
 Two women in green shirts are shown. The woman on the left has her right hand near her chest with fingers slightly curled. The woman on the right has her right hand near her chest with fingers slightly curled. A curved arrow indicates the movement of the hand.	friend	amigo
 Two women in green shirts are shown. Both have their hands near their chests, with fingers curled in a way that resembles a squirrel's paws.	squirrel	ardilla
 Two women in green shirts are shown. Both have their right hands near their faces, with fingers curled and the thumb pointing up, mimicking a bird's beak.	bird	pájaro
 Two women in green shirts are shown. Both have their right hands raised, with fingers spread and the palm facing forward, mimicking the shape of a tree.	tree	árbol
 Two women in green shirts are shown. The woman on the left has her right hand near her face with fingers spread. The woman on the right has her right hand near her face with fingers spread and the palm facing forward. A curved arrow indicates the movement of the hand.	fly	volar
 Two women in green shirts are shown. The woman on the left has her right hand near her chest with fingers curled. The woman on the right has her right hand near her chest with fingers curled. A curved arrow indicates the movement of the hand.	jump	saltar
 Two women in green shirts are shown. The woman on the left has her right hand near her face with fingers curled. The woman on the right has her right hand near her face with fingers curled. A curved arrow indicates the movement of the hand.	sing	cantar
